1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

The institution aims at all-round development of man and society. It is well aware of the inter-link among all things on and above earth and acts accordingly within its limits. The following efforts are made by the institution to integrate the cross cutting issues such as Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the curriculum. The Women's Study Centre and the Disciplinary Sub-committee of the college are very sensitive to issues related to girl students and female staff members. The Women Study Cell creates awareness among girl students on various familial, social, economical and political issues and empowers them with right thoughts and the habit of thinking rationally. The compulsory Environmental Studies subject is taught to the 2nd Semester undergraduate students, The college has constituted the Grievance Redressal Cell and the Anti-Ragging Cell to cater to the issues regarding Human Rights violations. The IQAC Cell, the NSS units and the Career and Counselling Cell of the college also arrange lectures for the students on issues related to Gender, Climate Change, Environmental Education, Human Rights, tree plantation, etc. ICT has become a part and parcel of today's educational system.

4.1.2 - The Institution has adequate facilities for cultural activities, sports, games (indoor, outdoor), gymnasium, yoga centre etc.

4.1.2- Though the college does not have a play ground of its own, for organising the inter- class outdoor games like cricket and football etc, we approach the neighbouring College to spare their ground for this purpose. For organising the Annual Athletic Meet, the District Sports Association, in acceptance of our request spares the Stadium in our favour. The College is having separate common rooms for boys and girls and the same are used while organizing indoor games competition. The College is having its Gymnasium and Yoga Centre and students are allowed access accordingly. However, the college authorities, in compliance of the recommendations of the NAAC Peer Team visiting the College in December, 2016, approached the State Government for allotment of suitable plots of land in the nearby area for play ground and satellite campus.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The vision of the institution is to imbibe in the students the spirit of philanthropy, cultural values and develop human resources in order to serve mankind in general and the weaker sections in particular to foster global peace and harmony. Providing quality education with affordable cost, scanning the external environment through strategic planning, building faculty power in tune with the modern trends in teaching, interacting creatively with the Government and the civil society, making aware of the community problems and establishing harmonious relationship with the society is the prime focus. The vision of the institution is to evolve through collective leadership into a centre of academic excellence which while retaining its regional roots is able to encompass and articulate global concerns and the wider social imperatives. It seeks to achieve a wholesome synergy between academic practices, social empathy, cultural proclivities and co-curricular responsibilities so that all stakeholders may benefit and students particularly, may develop to their fullest potential.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

As the college building was blessed with the lotus feet of Kavi Guru Rabindranath Tagore who had passed two nights in its premises on 15th and 16th December 1939 during his visit to Midnapore, the vision of the college is firmly rooted in the philanthropic ideology of the great soul. As the bard had always aspired for compassion ,tolerance and universal harmony, the college has always been striving to follow the paved path of the great poet. Our primary vision ,along with imparting academic knowledge, is to inculcate among the students the idiology thus upheld by the bard.To inspire the students in accordance with the humanistic and compassionate idiology, the college organizes many activities to imprint in the hearts of the students basic human values-the motto of secularism, compassion and tolerance.
